Charter Announces Departure of President, Operations

St. Louis, MO - Charter Communications, Inc. (NASDAQ: CHTR) announced today that Steve Apodaca, President, Operations will be leaving the Company. Mr. Apodaca reported to John Bickham, Chief Operating Officer.

“Steve has been a valuable contributor to Charter's success for nearly a decade, and has been vital to easing my transition to the company,” said John Bickham, Charter's Chief Operating Officer. “It has been a pleasure working with him, and we wish him the best.”

“I'm proud of all that this company has accomplished, and I know it is in good hands,” said Mr. Apodaca. “I have the utmost respect for the leadership team and look forward to watching the future success of Charter.”

Mr. Apodaca joined Charter in 2003 as Vice President, Sales and Marketing for Charter's then Central Division. After a number of positions in operations, he was promoted to President, Operations in 2010.

“Steve has made many contributions to this industry during the past 20 years, serving four of the nation's largest cable companies,” added Tom Rutledge, Charter President and Chief Executive Officer. “I am confident that Steve's hard working, competitive nature will continue to lead him to success.”
